Product Description

Lord Jagannath or the Lord of the universe is the ninth incarnation of Vishnu in Kali Yuga. He is the supreme Lord who is carved out of wood in an incomplete form; he does not have palms, feet, ear and neck. But has a symmetric black face with big circular eyes and a red smile spread across his face. In this wooden carving the lord is portrayed in shape of Sun with a round black face, big eyes and a smile spread across his face. He is beautifully adorned with accessories and is brightly painted. He is believed to be the friend of the poor and is believed to take the form of Kalki at the end of the Kali Yuga to eliminate the evil. So bring this wooden icon to decorate or worship and feel close to the Lord.

Product Description

Lord Jagannath is considered the ninth incarnation of the preserver and protector among the trinity, lord Vishnu. Lord Vishnu takes various forms in every yuga to eliminate the evil, protect his followers and reinforce the righteousness. Lord Jagannath basically emerged in Puri, Odisha as an incompletely carved wooden deity along with his companions; his elder brother Balaram who is the incarnation of the serpent Sesha and his youngest sister Subhadra the incarnation of Adi-Shakti. Here the Lord's face is presented in a unique way as the ray of Sun. The face is dark coloured with bright red smile. His eyes are big round with black pupils. The brightly coloured rays of the lord are painted blue and this wooden statue can be placed over your office table or at house or can even be gifted to your near and dear ones. So bring this statue home to bestow your house with love, harmony, prosperity and blessings.
