Material: Soapstone / Pink stone Height: 1 ft (approx.) Dimension(HWL): 12.3 x 6.3 x 3.3 inch Position: Sitting Weight: 4.25 kg

The founder of Buddhism. Lord Buddha means " a person who is awake". The awake here means wakening up to reality. Born into a royal family, upbrought with all lavish and luxury, married and had a son, until the age of twenty-nine he was unwitting of bitter facts of worldly affairs. One day he went to Kapilavastu, on the way he saw an old person, a sick man, and a corpse taken to the cremation ground each for the first time in his life. Which disturbed him to the core, while returning he also encountered a sage who walking in the street with a peaceful expression on his face. These experiences changed his looking into life, Lord Buddha realized that no wealth or pleasure will protect him from facing the universal suffering of a human face. So he left his lavish life to find a way to overcome the suffering "Dukha".

For six long years, he followed many, teachers, severe starvation, self-deprivation, yoga practice, getting no result from all his practices so he finally found the middle way, by avoiding the extremes. He sat beneath a banyan tree, with deep meditation and concentration he attain enlightenment. In this pose, Buddha is seen sitting on a lotus platform with both legs folded, in the Vajrasana pose. The lotus signifies his ability to grow even in dirty water likewise every human has the potential to overcome suffering or any difficulty. Both hands are held on the lap upon each other. Eyes are completely closed in deep concentration. The Meditation form is widely known as the Amitabha mudra, which "means the boundless light". This form generally represents the focus concentration. Beneficial for people seeking peace and calm in their life, also helpful in improving meditation skills. You can consider the statue to be a spiritual gift for your loved ones. Placement: Buddha meditate while the sun rises so always keep him facing the east, where the sun rises. You can be considered placing the Buddha statue in the northeast or Southwest sector, as it activates the earth element. You can opt to place it in Living, prayer, serenity, library, office, or any quiet corner of the house. Care: The advantage of pink stone is it is a nonporous material. Wipe the surface with a dry cloth or broom is enough to maintain the glossiness.

Height: 2.5 ft

The ferocious feature of Gods statues: "Kali"

- The above statue of Maa Kali is standing over the body of Lord Shiva.
- She is depicted wearing a garland of heads, skirts of arms, and a lolling tongue.
- A worthy explanation of female strength has been carved so beautifully in this statue.
- Odisha is globally popular for its astonishing stone carving by skilled artisans. Can be seen, from the statue above.

Maa Kali:: The ultimate mother figure, protector, and liberator:

- Maa Kali is the incarnation of Goddess Parvati, wife of Lord Shiva.
- Maa Kali is a Sanskrit word that stands for "she who is black"
- She is the most fierce and destructive form of Shakti. She is a scary, bloodthirsty, destructive yet the ultimate protector against the devil.
- Her appearance conveys a strong message of supremacy of nature over man, even a powerful Lord like Shiva is inert in front of her.

Keeping an idol of goddess Kali: suggestion with benefits:

- Maa kali idol should be facing south, whether it in your home or any other place. South zone serves the zone of fame and relaxation, goddess Kali is the epitome of energy, that brings you
- fame and recognition.
- Maa Kali destroys our ego, so, feel the divine grace by keeping her in the temple of your home or office, the apartment will be meritorious.
- You can decorate your landscaping, front yard, and garden with the fierce statue.
- It may be also placed at the entrance of the home, office shop, living room, reception, office cabin, etc.

How should one care of the Gods statues:

- The statue is made from the most weather-resistant stone like Granite.
- The main aspect of this material is its durability which does not need much attention while caring.
- To ward off the dust from accumulating just using a soft cloth over the surface of the statue is enough.

- The cleaning should be done every alternative day to keep the shine of the statue.

- It is a beautiful carving replica of a turtle.
- The whole carapace has sleek and intricate works of art over it.
- There is no word to praise the skilled work of the craftsman given to the stone, it is just so amazing.

Turtle; his significance in Hindu mythology

- The turtle is one of the incarnations of Lord Vishnu who took the Avatar of "Koorma" in Satya Yuga.
- It also acts as the base of the ocean churning process which took place between the Devas and the Asura.
- It signifies that one can withdraw their senses, from their object just like a turtle withdraws its limbs to its shell.

What are the best places to put the quiet and cute animal:

- An accent shelving unit in the living and offices is the best option to display small themed pieces.
- Placing it on a floating shelf, above the sofa in the patio, living room, or reception of a hotel will have a bigger impact on decor.
- Place it proudly on the coffee table, for a solo visual effect of the twee.
- Running out of floor space? then use your bookshelf, and take your collection to the wall.
- Show it off in china cabinets, wall-mounted cases, curio cabinets, and accent shelving units.
- Just go with the simplicity of the sculpture, make it a hello buddy to the visitor on a console in your entrance & foyer.
- You can make an amazing garden view by covering the balcony with artificial turf, with some plants and turtles.
- Coordinate the animal by installing a tabletop fountain on the coffee table, countertop desk, or on the end table with him, making the illusion of a small nature in the home.

Bring luck and wealth to your life with the turtle stone sculptures:

- Keeping the turtle in the south or west evades Vaastu Dosha.
- Keeping it at the entrance of the house never causes your mental stress.
- Boost up your business in the shop and office by placing it in the shop / office.
- For early promotion, success in studying placing turtle is also beneficial.

Effortless cleaning guidance for the stone sculptures:

- Cleaning and caring elevate the life of a decorative stone, but it fades away with exposure to dust and debris over time.
 - But with time to the time cleaning process, you will get your decorative stone back to its original charming position and appearance.
 - For this, you only need a cotton rag or a soft tea towel and wipe off the surface smoothly and thoroughly.

Product Description

Lord Shri Krishna born as an incarnation of lord Vishnu was famous for his mischievous attitude. He used to tease the cow girls on their way to sell butter, used to steal butter from others houses, his enchanting tune from flute was enough to hypnotise all. His one of the famous mischief was the 'vastraharan' which meant stealing of clothes. Lord Krishna in order to punish the complaining cowgirls stole their clothes while bathing in Yamuna river. He finally returned them their clothes, after several pledges from the cowgirls. This statue describes that scenario really well and reminds us of the notorious, playful nature of lord Krishna. So bring home this statue to get enchanted by the beauty of the lord and fill your environment with love and happiness.
