His name was Siddhartha Gautama born into a royal family, his father was the king of the Shakya tribe. Prince Siddhartha was brought up and raised in all opulence and luxury, unaware of human hardship, misery, and suffering of the world. he married had a son. One day he went out of his palace, he encountered three aspects of life when he saw, an old man, a sick, and a corpse each for the first time. While this thing disquieted, him he saw a holy monk walking with a calm and serenity on his face. He realized all this is part of human suffering and no man can escape from this in the universe. At the age of 29, he left the kingdom abandoning all the lavish and royal life behind, to find a way to circumvent the universal suffering. For the next six years he followed an ascetic life, many religious teachers as his teacher, got into self-mortification and self-deprivation, but no satisfactory answer appeared to his efforts. He then drove off the idea of going to the extreme and choosing a middle path, Siddhartha sat beneath a Bodhi tree and finally attain all the answers he was shouting for. He achieves pure enlightenment and that day Siddhartha Gautama became the Buddha. The Buddha blessing statue defines Lord Buddha sitting on a lotus pedestal, in a double lotus pose. The right hand is raised to the shoulder height near the chest, palm facing outward in Vitarka mudra/protection mudra defined as shield overcoming the fear, the left-hand lies flat on the left leg, palm face inward symbolizes generosity. Fear is an emotion that restricts our mind, keeping a blessing Buddha helps to overcome the fear and delusion in life. And it spread positive energy around the space. You can keep the statue where ever you want a blessing. A beautiful gifting option as well. Placement: As it depicts the protection and blessing mudra you can keep him facing the main entrance to keep negative and harmful energy outside of the home. An excellent cure for areas in the home or office having Vaastu defect. Care: Cleaning of Soapstone material is very easy, it only requires periodical dusting with a cloth or broom.

Pink Stone Dharmachakra Sitting Buddha 10 inch, a statue with a rich finish, and expressive detailing. Fit into any interior by spreading a tranquil vibe in the surrounding. Material: Soapstone/Pink stone Dimension(HWL): 10 x 5.5 x 2.5 inch Position: Sitting Weight: 10 kg Born into a royal family, privileged with all luxury and opulence Lord Buddha was away from any kind of reality of harsh life. he was a father of a son. By the age of 29, everything was going as smooth as before, but one day while on the way to Kapilavastu Lord Buddha, came across three aspects of life the old, the sick, and the dead. These seen trouble him and make him think does his wealth will prevent him from facing these phases. While returning on the way to the palace he came across a monk, who was walking peacefully down the road. These experiences changed Buddha's looking into life and he left all the luxury and royal life in search of illumination. Which he found at 35, through deep meditation and concentration in Bodh Gaya under a Bodhi tree. He began teaching all his life the four noble truths to others, and the path to achieving enlightenment. The teaching statue of Lord Buddha is widely known as Dharma chakra Buddha. In this pose Lord Buddha is seen sitting on a lotus in the Vajrasana pose, the lotus signifies the hardship of growing even after in dirty water yielding into a beautiful flower. Likewise human also has the potential to overcome pain and get enlightenment. Both his hands are held near the chest, symbolizing the teachings are coming directly from the heart. Forming a circle with the index and thumb of both the hands denotes the (Dharma chakra) "Wheel of Dharma". The word Dharma means "righteousness" and chakra means "universe" coming together it depicts universal righteousness order. The remaining fingers of the two hands remain extended. Each of them has some significance like the middle finger of the right hand denotes the listener of the teaching. The ring finger symbolizes the solitary Buddha (who independently achieves liberation), the little finger denotes Mahayana Buddhism. The other three fingers of the left hand denote the gems of Buddhism first the Buddha, The Dharma (teachings), and the Sangha (the spiritual community). Lord Buddha's teaching posture is a reflection of pure wisdom and spirituality, so people seeking spiritual growth in life should consider keeping a teaching Buddha in their space. Also, teaching Buddha is beneficial for people's desire to achieve academic success. Placement: As it invites growth and enlightenment keeping the statue at the Northeast corner will be favorable for academic and spiritual development. Where ever you want to keep him at the office or home make sure to face him east always. It will be an ideal spiritual gift for your loved ones. Care: Soapstone is a nonporous material so the advantage of cleaning the statue is extremely easy. Use a cloth or broom to wipe down the surface which is enough to keep the glaze of the statue.

The term Shakya muni Buddha refers to Siddhartha Gautama, son of king Shudhodana a king of the Shakya tribe. Until the age of 29, Sidhartha became a father of a son, life was going all smooth suddenly there is an incident that happened in his life which changed his perception of looking into life. One fine day while he was on his way to Kapilavastu he run across the three brutal truths of life when he saw a sick man, an old person, and a corpse being carried to the cremation ground, and while returning to the palace he saw an ascetic walking peacefully, he realizes no wealth can save him from the harsh reality of getting sick, old and subject to death. So in a desire to find the solution to overcome this fear he left the royal crown and leave the lavish life. 6 years after under a Bidhi tree he gets the enlightenment. And spent the rest of his life preaching about his discovery and how to achieve it. The teaching Buddha is that moment of his life where he first gave his sermon to his diples at Sarnath. Each of his gestures of hands and posture has some nonverbal spiritual significance. Buddha is seen sitting on a lotus platform in the Vajrasan pose. Lotus is a symbol of how to overcome difficulties and grows beautifully, (as it grows in dirty water) so humans also have the same potential to overcome pain and became enlightened. The right hand folded near the chest symbolizes the teaching are straight from the heart, forming a circle from the tip of index and thumb denotes the "Wheel of Dharma", palm faces outward. The left hand resting on the lap forms the same circle, palm face upward. The remaining fingers of both hands remain extended. The middle extended finger of the right hand represents the listener of the teaching. The ring finger symbolizes the solitary Buddha (who independently achieves liberation), the little finger denotes Mahayana Buddhism. The other three fingers of the left hand denote the treasures of Buddhism first the Buddha (the enlightened one), The Dharma (teachings), and the Sangha (the spiritual community). His first sermon was about the four noble truths and the eightfold path. The path of enlightenment can be achieved by following moral-ethical conduct of behavior, thought process, and meditation. The Dharma chakra Buddha is beneficial for those who achieve academic and spiritual growth in life. Through wisdom and intellect, we will be able to solve many problems, the teaching of Buddha is the reflection of wisdom and righteousness. Placing: Right placement will rip the benefits of displaying the statue. The Northeast sector is best considerable for placing teaching Buddha. You can find another desired place if the northeast corner does not fit then make sure to face him always in the east direction while placing him. Care: A cloth or broom is enough to ward off the dust from the surface.

Description: Sand Stone Eka Mudra Budha Sculpture 18inch 12. A weathered finish statue with a peaceful sense of the look. An elegant sculpture becomes more beautiful with age.

Siddhartha Guatama, a name given by his family, son of queen Mahamaya and king Shudhodana clan of Kashya tribe. Upbrought with wealth and opulence, Gautama was unaware of outside affairs of the world, the pain or any suffering human faces in his life. He married and father of a son. Until the age of twenty-nine, life was going as before but a sudden incident changed the way of looking into life. One day he went outside his palace when he saw, encountered an old person, a sick man, and a corpse, each or the first time. In the same way, he saw a monk who was walking on the road with a peaceful look on his face. This event forces him to realize that every human is subject to old, sick, and death.No wealth or opulence would protect him from suffering these definite fates of humans. He left the royal life and went out to search for a way to overcome all the Dukha. Six years following different practices, couldn't find a satisfactory answer. He finally finds a middle way. Sat beneath a fig tree in deep meditation. The final moment away from achieving his goal, a demon king named Maara tried to tempt him and prevent him from accomplishing it. Knowing this Gautama lowered his right hand to the earth and roared 'i bear you the witness" to which the earth goddess appeared and sweep Maara in a flood and allowing Gautama to achieve enlightenment, from the day he was named Buddha 'a person who is awake"

The statue above is widely known as earth touching Buddha, or Bhumisparsha Buddha, in this pose Lord Buddha is seen sitting on a lotus, with eyes completely closed in deep meditation. The right hand lowered over the right knee pointing fingers towards the Bhumi(ground), palm facing inward. The left hand remains flat on the lap, palm facing upward in Vitarka mudra. the Vitarka mudra represents the flow of energy.

This form is widely known as the Amitabha pose, "the boundless light". As it represents focused concentration, so keeping the statue is beneficial for people who desire to live in peace and calm. It also helps to improve meditation skills.

Placement: Keep the statue east facing. Also favorable if you consider keeping him in the Northeast and southwest corners it activates the earth element. A spiritual gift for your loved ones too.

Care: Use a dry cloth or a broom to dust the Buddha statue.
