Product Description

Resting Lord Ganesha Pattachitra Canvas Painting 5.5 inch x 9 inch Lord Ganesha is the son of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati. He is the embodiment of knowledge, good luck, art, and wisdom. The Vighna-harta here is portrayed reclining on a bed. He is presented bearing his weapons in his three hands and the fourth rested on the edge of the bed. The elephant-headed lord is portrayed in a very beautiful manner with perfection. The skilled artisans of Odisha have presented the lord with accuracy on a sheet of cloth. The minute detailing on the border looks really good and is enhancing the eccentricity of the wall hanging.

The museum of ancient art and temples. Odisha is the hub of Pattachitra arts, a unique way of displaying mythology and classical folk elements in a cloth with various motifs, designs, and patterns.

The colors used in the painting are purely made from natural ingredients. The white color extract from seashells was powdered soaked to make the white paste. The color green is made from the green leaf and green stones. Red is made from a local stone called Hingula. Another stone named Khandaneela was used to extract the color blue. The yellow is made from, stone named Hartal. Black is extracted by burnt coconut shell. These five colors are also called Pancha Tatwa. Every color has its own significance, as the white illustrates Laughter (Hasya), Red stands furious, astonishment in yellow,

The hair of the mouse and Buffalo used to make brushes and tied to the end of a bamboo stick. The floral border makes the art astonishingly beautiful.

Mahadev is known as the destroyer and Krishna is known for preserving. Lord Mahadev symbolizes anger and the utmost power of decision-making. Krishna the preserver portrayed as blue-skinned, takes incarnation whenever the earth needs a balance of good over bad. Krishna is the eighth incarnation of Lord Bishnu.

This picture has a unique portrayal of art, on one side if you look at it will look like a bull, while on another side if you look at it looks like an elephant. One can get blessed by keeping photos of the duo, it enhances self-confidence and clear vision.

Able to clear the obstacle and leads you to progress steadily in life. Bring calmness, peace, and harmony to your life with their picture.

Care: It's extremely easy to clean, use a soft cloth to wipe the picture.

Odisha, Jagannath temple is one of the Char Dham for pilgrims sites in India. The state is also renowned for its ancient handicrafts heritage. Pattachitra is one of the oldest artwork of Odisha. Depicts the Hindu mythological and folk tales.

Patta means canvas and Chitra means painting.

Lord Jagannath have 32 Besha. Here Besha means attire, dress, or adornment. Deities from many temples are dressed and decorated in many manners. In Jagannath puri also the trinity dressed with usual to occasional ornamentation according to the festival and tithi. Every day from the Mangala aarti to Ratri pahuda the deities get dressed with every pahuda. When there is a special occasion in a special festival the deities get a special Besha. Like Chitalagi Amavasya it falls on the new moon day of Shravana month known as Chateau Amavasya. A special ritual is observed on this day. The forehead of the three gods is embellished with a Chita. The word Chita means ornamentation of the forehead with materials like bezoar, sandalwood, musk. But in Jagannath temple puri, the Chita is made from gold, diamond, emerald, sapphire, ruby. The Sevak adorn the deities with the Chita on the day of Shravana Amavasya. The Chita is also removed from the head in the Snana Purnima in which the three siblings visit Gundicha temple for nine days and again put it in the Shravana month.

A special pudding made from rice called "Chateau Pitha" was offered to the deities. The Chateau Amavasya festival is also celebrated as an agricultural festival of the farmers. This day's farmers go to their peddy fields and pray to yield good crops.

You can give your wall a unique fine art display, with a spiritual appeal. The fascinating painting would amplify the wall ornamentation with wonders. You can opt to hang the painting at your living, study, library, office, gallery, etc.

Care: Use a dry soft brush to clean the painting, gently wipe the surface.

No wonder Odisha has the holy pilgrims from the Char Dham, one of the Dham is the Shrikhetra Puri. Where the worldwide famous cart festival performed. Full of cultural heritage the land of handicrafts. Pattachitra is one of the oldest and most popular living art forms of ancient times. The Pattachitra painting is a mythological and folk story inscribed in it. comprises of stories from Lord Jagannath and Vaishnava religion.

Lord Jagannatha with his siblings has many Besha, during the day. The Besha here means the attire and embellishments. There is different occasion and festival where deities dress up and decorate according to the festival. Ghodalagi Besha is one of his Besha from the 32 Besha.

In winter like everyone feels cold, the deities of Jagannath temple also feel the cold for which he adorns The Ghodalagi Besha. From the sixth day of the bright fortnight of Margsira Month to the fifth day of the bright fortnight at Magha, deities wear winter clothes. In Odiya Margasira Shukla Sasthitithi to Magha Shukla Panchami or known as Basanta Panchami the lords are covered with heavy blankets. Specially designed winter dresses are stored in the Ratna Singhsana. The entire body barring his face is covered in blankets and with headgear made of cotton and wool. The color is changed with each day, as per the temple almanac. Grey for Monday, Tuesday is a mixture of five different colors, blue for Wednesday, yellow for Thursday, white for Friday, black for Saturday, and red for Sunday. The ritual is known as "Odhana Sasthi" and continues till Basanta Panchami.

For the natural colors used in the canvas, the paintings have a soft glow that lasts forever. It's a unique and charming form of deity, to adore your walls. Hang it on walls of living, dining, Bedroom, hotel, cottage, etc.

The incredible Odisha, Land of the fourth Dhaam. Where the world-famous Lord Jagannath temple is situated. Also the land of diverse, vibrant handicrafts and its cultural heritage. Pattachitra is one of the oldest artwork and rooted in faith with Hindu god and goddess and their mythological and folk stories depicted in the canvas with natural colors.

Padma Bhesa of Lord Jagannatha was observed on the new moon day of Magha and Basanta Panchami. Is the day which goddess Saraswati the provider of education is worshiped. The Padma means The lotus and the flower that appeared from this month onward. The dress material of this Besha is made out of the Lotus flower, (it is specifically provided by the Badachhata matha of puri). There is a story behind this Besha, long ago there is a devotee named Manohar das who was willing to offer Lotus flower, so when he started his journey to the trinity he collect many lotus flowers and tied in his Gamucha (towel), When he opened the towel after reaching the temple he found out some flowers have dried up and some got rotten. Seeing this the Sevaka of the temple thrashed him for offering rotten flowers to the god. Later the King Gajapati of Puri saw a dream where Lord Jagannath asked him to call Manohar das and offer those flowers to him. To which Manohar das was taken back to the deity offered that lotus from his towel to Lord, and to his surprise, the flowers became fresh again added with fragrance.

To remind his bhakti bhava (devotion), the lords are embellished by Padma Besha. Deities are decorated with Mukhapadma, Kundala, Tahia, Chita, Kundala, Swans, Chakra, Sankha are prepared from thermocol. A special pudding called Padma Khiri is offered on this day with a special type of rice called Padmakeshari.

The painting serves the saintliness and piety of the viewer. As well as decore the wall with the touch of godliness. You can hang it in any room, gallery, study, library, office, etc.
