Description: Colorful Maa Lakshmi Pattachitra Canvas Painting. Splash of contemporary color to pop up on any of your walls. A charming option to spread divinity all around.

The art of Pattachitra dates back over a thousand years. A traditional art depicts stories of Hindu deities. It displays stories through motifs, design, and various patterns.

The smearing of colors is purely natural. Five colors white, red, yellow, green, black, known as Pancha Tatwa been used to color the canvas. The white color is procured by soaking, drying, and churning seashell, The red color is derived from a stone named Hingula, yellow is obtained from a stone Haritlal, Green is secured from leaves and green stones, and black is obtained from lampblack, or either from burning coconut shell. 120 more colors are used by mixing of the Pancha Tatwa color. The hair of, mouse, buffalo, and Keya roots are used for brush for the painting. It is tied to a bamboo stick as a brush handle. The flower border on the painting makes it more impressive Laxmi is the household goddess of most Hindu families. The word Laxmi is derived from the Sanskrit words Lakshya. She is the goddess of wealth and prosperity and fortune. Goddess Laxmi rises out of the churning of the milky ocean, known as "Khira Sagar" during the tug of war between the god and demons, seated on a full blossomed lotus. She herself choose Lord Vishnu as her husband.

Se has always been associated with Lord Vishnu. Whenever Lord Vishnu, took birth on earth in human form, goddess Laxmi also incarnated as human form along with him. When Lord Vishnu incarnated as Vamana, Goddess Laxmi incarnated as the Padma. When Lord Vishnu incarnated as Parasurama, Goddess Laxmi incarnated as Dharani. When Lord Vishnu incarnated as Lord Krishna, Goddess Laxmi incarnated as Rukmani. When Lord Vishnu incarnated as Rama, Goddess Laxmi incarnated as Sita.

The pictorial depiction shows her with four arms, holding a lotus in both upper hands. Right hands gesture the Varada mudra which bestows wealth and prosperity and the left in Abhay mudra, she bestows courage and strength to the devotee. Sitting upon a full blossomed lotus, often in the blue ocean. Always with a calm and soothing expression.

She resides in places of hard work, bravery, and integrity. It is very auspicious to have a picture of her in office, shops, wherever monetary transaction takes place. In a festival like Dewali, you can consider it as an uncommon gift to your dear one or for your employee.

Product Description

Lord Krishna Nauka Vihar Pattachitra Canvas Painting. Create an expressively approachable way of displaying art with its characters. A spiritual journey through eyes is just beautiful to lure anyone.

Material: Canvas

Dimension(HW): 11 x 15 inch

Weight: 0.1 kg

Pattachitra means cloth painting an aged and popular art of Odisha. Which displays pictorial stories and live events from Hindu mythology.

The colors used in the painting are purely made from natural ingredients. The white color extract from seashells was powdered soaked to make the white paste. The color green is made from the green leaf and green stones. Red is made from a local stone called Hingula. Another stone named Khandaneela was used to extract the color blue. The yellow is made from, stone named Hartal. Black is extracted by burnt coconut shell. These five colors are also called Pancha Tatwa. 120 other colors are made by using these five main colors. Every color has its own significance, as the white illustrates Laughter (Hasya), Red stands furious, astonishment in yellow, The hair of the mouse and Buffalo used to make brushes and tied to the end of a bamboo stick. The floral border makes the art astonishingly beautiful.

Krishna's favorite thing is playing his flute, and whenever he plays his flute the Gopikas of Vrindavan joins him enjoying, dancing, and his divine love Radha was lost in his eyes of beloved. It is said that in the summer season Lord Krishna with his Beloved love Radha and other Gopikas, sail through the Yamuna river in Nauka(boat) and enjoy the breeze.

Gopis are those saints and sages who penance for years to become devotees of Lord Krishna, in incarnation. Gopis are spellbound in joy whenever they see Lord Krishna playing the flute. Their expression of love towards him is like a devotee towards his God. Bhakti is more blissful than liberation.

The above picture depicts the wonderful portrayal of that majestic moment of Lord Krishna Nauka Vihar. Their names can not be taken without each other, perfect definition of love via soul is represented in the picture. Each character is defined with clear dark lines, characters apparel, and fashion sense with detailed work.

Care: Use a soft cloth to dust the painting.

Material: Canvas cloth

Dimension(HW): 19 x 13 inch

Weight: 0.1 kg

Patta means cloth, Chitra means painting, thus painting on a piece of cloth is known as Pattachitra. Which is the age-old art of Odisha. Depicting stories and events of Hindu deities with various motifs, designs, and patterns.

The sourcing and application of colors and materials are purely natural. Five colors white, red, yellow, green, black, known as Pancha Tatwa been used to color the Picture. The white color gets by soaking, drying, and churning seashell, The red extract from a stone named Hingula, a local stone Haritlal used for yellow, Green used from leaves and green stones, and black is obtained from lamp soot, or either from burning coconut shell. 120 more colors are used by mixing of the Pancha Tatwa color. The hair of, mouse, buffalo, and Keya roots are used to make the brush for the painting. And tied to a bamboo stick for the brush handle. The flower border on the painting makes it more notable.

Every day cowherds girls used to go to the banks of Yamuna to take a bath. They assemble together holding each other's hands, singing, and bathing, deep in the water. Before going into the water they put their clothes near. Noticing bathing in the river fully naked is disrespectful, Lord Krishna decided to teach them a lesson, so that they may not repeat the mistake. Krishna stole the clothes of the Gopis and told them to come out from the river in the same way as they took bath.

When Gopis urges Lord Krishna to return their clothes back Lord told them that they disrespect and committed an offense by bathing without clothes in the Yamuna. He asked them to touch their forehead with folded palms and bow down before the god of Yamuna, Varunadeva. Gopis immediately abided by his order without giving a second thought which makes Lord Krishna the most obedient and greatest lover of him.

Everything Lord did was with a purpose behind it. Lord Krishna stole clothes, to set them free from the sin they committed. Like he stole butter from the household because the butter was direct went to Knasa, and children were starving. To give nutrition to every child, he stole and have them with his friends.

Care: For dusting use a soft cloth to wipe the surface of the canvas.

Enhance your home interior designing with an iconic statue of Konark Wheel Sculpture from CRAFTS ODISHA. The gorgeous little piece is a great choice for small spaces and is a highly sought-after budget-friendly alternative. Material: Green Soapstone Dimension(HWL): 7.5 x 8.5 x 1.2 inch Wheel Diameter: 6 inch Weight: 0.7 kg (700 g) The world-famous prestigious home decor statue:

- The wheel is a replica of the Konark wheel, with 8 spokes installed on a pedestal having similar decoration at the end.
- The wheel is removable from its pedestal.
- The architectural elegance is a masterpiece of the heritage, made by skilled artisans of Odisha.

The great wheel of Konark:

- The wheel is also known as the "wheel of life".
- The wheel is the base of the chariot, consisting of 8 wider spoke and 8 thinner spoke.
- The spokes signify the Prahars (three-hour periods) of a day.
- Distance between 2 wider spokes is 180 minutes and the thinner spoke between two wider spokes is 90 minutes. There are 30 beads between one wider spoke to the next thinner spoke and each bead represents 3 minutes. The Sundial shows time anti-clockwise and the top center wider spoke represents midnight.

Few placement suggestions for the home decor statue:

- The size can easily fit into any shelf of a cupboard and showcase.
- You can also place it on your study, office, reception desk, coffee table, etc.
- It can place at any office and home decoration as it represents the image of the world heritage.
- A decent gifting option for any official or personal occasion of your dear one.

How to care the delightful decorative stone statue:

- The glorious decorative stone statue is made of Soapstone.
 - The chief advantage of Soapstone is that it is non-porous and weatherproof.
 - You can clean the statue by using a piece of dry cloth or a small brush over the surface.
 - The cleaning should be done periodically.
