Product Description

Granite Black Stone Sitting Vastu Ganesha Statue 36inches is a splendid carved stone sculpture. The imperial statue has carved from a single piece of granite stone, from the well-known land of Odisha.

Material: Granite/ Black stone Dimension(HWL) : 36 x 23 x 11 inch

Height: 3 ft Position: Sitting The lord with many objects, each part of his body stands for a distinct spiritual significance. His elephant head symbolizes wisdom and intelligence. The large ears stand for attentive and careful listening. His big belly restrains the whole cosmos, which he binds with a serpent as a belt. The goad he use to direct his devotee to move forward in life with rectitude. The nose he uses to subjugate obstacles form the pathway of his devotee. The sweet bowl represents "sat chit anand " a reward when our soul attains the inner joy. His Abhay Hasta (Blessing mudra) with open palm signifies that he protects us from all forms of pain and sorrow. Ganesha statue with trunk touching the sweet signifies divine bliss. His carrier mouse is the mirror of our desire which never gets relished. when desire gets ungovernable it wrecks out our morality and virtue. So the mount mouse is shown near his feet with folding both hands and humbly watching his master illustrates that the desire is under the control. The presence of the Ganesha god protects from the evil eye and Vastu dosha of the home and office. He bestows material prosperity and luck by removing the hardship of the devotee. Placement: The ideal direction for the placement of the idol is west, north, and northeast. To attract educational benefit and personal or professional benefit facing him at north will be favorable. Avoid placing him under the staircase, it will bring inauspicious results. Care: Black granite is the strongest of all stones, so the statue is durable and stands in any weather condition. Only you need to dust the statue with a cotton or fiber cloth or broom to prevent any dirt.

Product Description

The incredible Soapstone Khanja Work Lord Ganesha Sculpture 2.5 ft representation of a sublime delicate idol by artisans. An absolute piece of skillfully carved Ganesha statue is an ancient practice of sculpting stone into art and craft in the Indian state of Odisha. This Ganesha statue has seen dancing with six arms along with the gana's, attendant of Shiva. Lord Ganesha has been appointed as the leader of all gana's by his father Lord Shiva.

Material: Soapstone/Pink stone Height: 2.5 ft (approx.) Dimension(HWL): 31 x 18.5 x 11 inch

Position: Dancing

Lord Ganesha has 32 forms, each of which carries different items which have important spiritual significance. Here he is seen with a goad in the upper right-hand goad (known as ankusa) which is used on elephants to move faster, signifies Ganesha god direct us to move forward in the righteous path in our life. In left upper arm holding a noose or paasa which use to control an animal, signifies, Lord Ganesha captures all hardships from the path of his devotee, holding a broken tusk in his lower left hand, which he himself broke while writing Mahabharat Epic from sage Vyasa, symbolic of sacrifice for the right cause. In his lower right hand holding his favorite sweet, a reward of spiritual life or you can say this signifies "sat chit anand" means inner joy. Again the axe signifies cutting off all troubles from the path, and the prayer beads his devotion toward spiritual life and calm nature. The lord sculpture is incomplete without his mount, rat represents Ganesha's ability to control any troublesome situation or creature. One soul gets purified with the divine blessing of the god's statues. This Ganesha decor, not only opens a way of positivity and spiritual vibe into life but also decorates your space in a sophisticated manner. Also a classy gift for your loved ones on various occasions. Placing: It will be more beneficial if you keep the idol in the east or to the east direction of your selected place. And one thing to be considered while placing him at the entrance of any building, home or office, place him in such a way that the back of the idol should always face the main entrance. Here as he is in sandy fawn color so consider the background should a light one. Care: Just dust it with a cloth (dry) or broom periodically. Also, you can make use of a small brush to reach the tiny places of carving. "The Ganesha Stone Sculptures royal look with fine polish is a piece of a worthy investment."
