The museum of ancient art and temples. Odisha is the hub of Pattachitra arts, a unique way of displaying mythology and classical folk elements in a cloth with various motifs, designs, and patterns.

The colors used in the painting are purely made from natural ingredients. The white color extract from seashells was powdered soaked to make the white paste. The color green is made from the green leaf and green stones. Red is made from a local stone called Hingula. Another stone named Khandaneela was used to extract the color blue. The yellow is made from, stone named Hartal. Black is extracted by burnt coconut shell. These five colors are also called Pancha Tatwa. Every color has its own significance, as the white illustrates Laughter (Hasya), Red stands furious, astonishment in yellow,

The hair of the mouse and Buffalo used to make brushes and tied to the end of a bamboo stick. The floral border makes the art astonishingly beautiful.

Mahadev is known as the destroyer and Krishna is known for preserving. Lord Mahadev symbolizes anger and the utmost power of decision-making. Krishna the preserver portrayed as blue-skinned, takes incarnation whenever the earth needs a balance of good over bad. Krishna is the eighth incarnation of Lord Bishnu.

This picture has a unique portrayal of art, on one side if you look at it will look like a bull, while on another side if you look at it looks like an elephant. One can get blessed by keeping photos of the duo, it enhances self-confidence and clear vision.

Able to clear the obstacle and leads you to progress steadily in life. Bring calmness, peace, and harmony to your life with their picture.
