The white color extract from seashells was powdered soaked to make the white paste. The color green is made from the green leaf and green stones. Red is made from a local stone called Hingula. Another stone named Khandaneela was used to extract the color blue. The yellow is made from, stone named Hartal. Black is extracted by burnt coconut shell. These five colors are also called Pancha Tatwa. Every color has its own significance, as the white illustrates Laughter (Hasya), Red stands furious, astonishment in yellow, The hair of the mouse and Buffalo used to make brushes and tied to the end of a bamboo stick. The floral border makes the art astonishingly beautiful.

Lord Krishna, born in jail, raised by his foster parents, left his childhood divine love, and kill his own maternal ruthless uncle to save humanity. He is the supreme example of how to perform your duty by saving the righteous path in life.

The Bishwaroopa has been shown on the day of Shukla Ekadasi when he was preaching Bhagwat Geeta to Arjuna on the battlefield of Kurukshetra. Prior to that he also showed his Biswaroopa in Kurusabha when he went to Hastinapur assembly hall from Pandava side to negotiate peace between Pandava and Kauravas. With a view to ending the enmity and injustice done to Pandava from the Kaurava. But end up within an hostility from Kauravas and outcome the Kurukshetra war. Duryodhana the son of the king of Dhritrarastra tried to imprison Lord Krishna that is when Shri Krishna showed his Bishwaroopa, except Drona, Bhishma, Vidoora, and Sanjay no one was blessed to see his divine Roopa in the Sabha(assembly).one need the divine eye side to visualize this Roopa, like in Kurukshetra only Arjuna, Sanjay and Hanuman(who was in the flag of Arjuna above his chariot).

Krishna is known as the god of wealth, love, and prosperity. So placing the picture at the Northeast corner, from east to west, or west to east is invites healthy and positive energy flow.

Pattachitra is a traditional and ancient art of Odisha. The painting is done on cloth using natural colors, motifs, patterns, and designs, displaying the stories and events from mythology, god, and goddesses.

The white color extract from seashells was powdered and soaked to make the white paste. The color green is made from green leaves and green stones. Red is made from a local stone called Hingula. Another stone named Khandaneela was used to extract the color blue. The yellow is made from, a stone named Hartal. Black is extracted by burnt coconut shell. These five colors are also called Pancha Tatwa. 120 other colors are made by using these five main colors. Every color has its own significance, as white illustrates Laughter (Hasya), Red stands furious, astonished in yellow. Blue is used to depict Lord Bishnu and Green for Lord Rama. The hair of the mouse and Buffalo was used to make brushes and tied to the end of a bamboo stick. The floral border makes the art astonishingly beautiful.

Radha Krishna has two bodies but one entity that's why his name is uttered in a single breath. Whenever Lord Krishna played his flute, Radha couldn't resist meeting Krishna. They shared eternal love with each other, power of sacrifice, and strength with each other. They are celestial beings. The love and devotion for each other are something that can never be found. They teach us that love does not have any early definition and explanation, it's a supreme union between the human and divine.

The picture above depicts the mystique of love between Radha Krishna surrounded by many Gopikas. Keeping a Radha Krishna painting in your home or office imbues a spirit of devotion, love, sacrifice, and strength. Another take on a splash of hues used in the painting makes it look more bewitching on the wall.

Care: Dust it with a soft cloth or brush.
