- The sculpture has given a weathered effect to create an illusion of antique?
- The graceful statue is made by the skilled artisans of Odisha, where stone engraving is famous worldwide for its complex design.

Goddess of wealth and well-being; Maa Laxmi

- Goddess Laxmi is the consort of Lord "Vishnu" the reservoir of the universe. And the pair often as Laxmi-Narayana.
- The goddess of wealth and prosperity of the Hindu household.
- She rose from the churning of the milk ocean.
- The lotus represents beauty, diversity, harmony, and stability, despite blossoming in mud, it retains its beauty.

- Goddess Laxmi gets worshipped widely in the time of Dhanteras and Diwali, for welcoming prosperity and wealth into home and business.

Direction and placement suggestions:

- The sacred statue of the Goddess should be placed in the North or east part of the Northeast corner of home or office.
- Laxmi sitting on Kamalāsana (on a lotus) and holding lotus bud is believed to be the best posture to bring stability and growth to your wealth.
- Place the statue at the entrance of any temple.
- It is auspicious to place it in your office, business hall, restaurant, shop, etc.
- You can also place the stone sculptures in your garden, fountain, or park.

Benefits of keeping the beatific stone sculptures:

- She protects her devotee from illness and blessed him/her with food to fame and the richness of life.
- The word "Laxmi" is derived from the word Lakshya which means ambition, goal, or target thus, thus, she helps a person to attain life's goals by favoring luck.
- She is also known as "Moksha Pradayini", freeing one from the cycle of death and rebirth.

Instruction for the cleaning of the statue:

- The dignified structure is made from durable material like Redstone.
 - Redstone stone is weather-resistant and requires super low maintenance.
 - For dusting simply wipe the surface of the statue with a piece of dry cloth or broom.
 - The dusting should be carried every second day, to keep the dust at a bay from the stone sculptures.
