About Lord Buddha: From the princely life of Siddhartha Gautama to Lord Buddha, his life turned around when he realized that no wealth can save him from facing the utter truths one's face in this life, like getting old, falling sick, and death. He left his lavish life to find a way to get freed from suffering, and after six years of searching, he finally attained enlightenment. And spent the rest of his life sharing the path to escape from suffering, with the world. He has to develop the superiority of sense and insight. His teachings include the four noble truths and the eightfold path, preached the first time in Sarnath to his disciples. About the Head: Like distinct features of his posture from standing to reclining, the head feature remains the same in all statues. His head too displays many aspects of his life. The crown on his head represents intellect and sagacity. The dot on his forehead represents his supernatural vision, to see with mental power. His half-closed eyes, in a state of deep meditation, depict the mind was awake and balanced between the external and internal realm. The long earlobes represent his ability to hear the suffering of the world and signify compassion and wisdom. The smirk smile which he always carries on his face represents the mind that is free of suffering and understanding of the universe. His head the most important part of the body itself represents his characteristics. The head is the representation of the intellect and generosity of knowledge he attained by being an awakened one. Inner peace is the way to bring happiness into life, in this hectic lifestyle it is difficult to possess. So keeping a symbol of placidity and calmness like a Buddha head statue will help to improve the positive vibes into life. For academic purposes consider it to place in the kids and study room by facing him to the east will rip more benefits. Placement: If you have a balcony garden then create a space among the flower pots to statue him. Otherwise, you can place him on the console of your living or corridor with a few more figurines. Your sideboard will also be a useful place to statue him between two similar patterned lamps. A beautiful gifting option to consider for your dear ones. Care: Pink stone is a nonporous material, which does not need much attention for cleaning, you can simply dust the surface with a cloth or brush enough to ward off the dust.
