Gautama Buddha, widely known as "Shakyamuni", is the sage of the Shakya clan. The cycle of the renaissance is called Samsara which is the bailiwick of suffering. The buddhas ultimate enlightenment is the practice of sidestepping from that suffering. The person who discovered the path to free rein from suffering followed it to the end, and teaches it to others is called "The Buddha". Like every physical feature of Lord Buddha with some spiritual significance, his head also illustrates many aspects of his life. The top nut of his head is known as Ushnisha, which depicts his wisdom and acuity after enlightenment. His half-closed eyes looking the internal self as well as the external world. The lengthened ear illustrates the wealthy lifestyle from his past he pursued and his hearing power of suffering of the world. A dot on his forehead represents the third eye, the occult. His semi-closed eyes, with deep meditative state along with looking the material and physical world. The smirk smile on his face depicts in spite of all suffering, he has unfolded the understanding of the universe. Having a Buddha's head, Emits the power of wisdom and peace around it. Placing it facing east in study or kids will rip academic success.

Placement: You can place the delightful bust statue at the tiny garden of your balcony, on top of a console table or sideboard between two lamps, or place it with a few more decorative statues, on the shelf of your living room. Considered to be a gifting item full of divinity. Care: Sandstone material require very little care. Wipe down the surface with a fiber cloth or tea towel enough to ward off the dust.
