Product Description

Lord Krishna, the incarnation of the Vishnu was born in Treta yug to establish the victory of good over evil King Kansha and free the earth from his wrath. He is one of the most popular and loved god of Hindus. He is well-known for his playful, notorious and mischievous nature which never failed to attract all towards him. Apart from his playful nature lord Krishna is a brilliant example of bravery and courage. Here he is depicted to be dancing over a seven headed snake called Kaliya, holding his tail in one hand and his favourite musical instrument, flute in other. This statue depicts his ferocious nature when it comes up to saving his devotees. His beautiful posture and facial expression can leave anyone spell-bound. The perfect carving on the stone and proper finishing add life to the lifeless stone. He is the one who can establish peace, love and prosperity in your house. Feel protected under his blessings by bringing home this prepossessing statuette and beautifying your environment.
