Product Description

Lord Krishna here is depicted as rowing a boat or a nauka with several cow-girls being his passenger. This idol is connected to the pastimes of Lord Krishna and Radharani, who along with their friends would enjoy boat rides on the river Yamuna in the summers. Lord Krishna even after being the incarnation of lord Vishnu, lived like a human being, experiencing all the pain, sorrows, happiness, joy and this is one of the joyful moment captured by the stone artist. The idol is beautifully craved out in the soap stone with absolute precision. The beautiful gestures of each character in the idol are perfectly sculpted. A beautiful artwork which looks captivating. So experience the exquisiteness of this masterpiece by bringing home this beautiful idol.
