Product Description

Navanita-nava-hari Mucukunda-prasadakah Sodasa-stri-sahasresho Tri-bhangi-madhurakrtih

What it means Krishna, the butter-thief while a child, mercifully granted hermit king Muchukunda his long felt wish. He had the following of thousands of queens (Gopis), delighting them with his 'tribhanga'- the mesmerising three-angled bending pose. Lord Krishna the epitome of love is portrayed standing with tribhanga in front of the cow with his favourite musical instrument, flute in his hand which had the capability of mesmerising any soul with his enchanting tune. His intoxicating expressions and postures can leave you spell-bind. So feel the aura of the supreme lord around you by bringing home this statuette.
