Product Description

In this statue the lord is presented in a very captivating manner in a reclining position on a moon. This beautiful statuette made out of red sand stone can leave you speechless with its extreme beauty. The lord is depicted holding a mace and a noose in his two hands and his one hand is resting over his knee and other resting on a pillow on his side. The two tools mace and noose also called passa and ankusha are used to tame wild elephants and here the wild elephant refers to one wild untamable mind. Lord Ganesha is the Vighna-Vinashak who removes all obstacles and blesses one with numerous boons and unimaginable success. So bring this lord home to be bestowed with good luck, prosperity, knowledge, happiness, peace, harmony and success.
