Product Description

Lord Ganesha is considered to be the Vighnesvara or the lord of good fortune, and is worshiped before any auspicious occasion or beginning of any work. This Ganesha statuette brings in all the positivity and good vibes along with it. Lord Ganesha is standing in beautiful posture with his one hand bearing sweets, other blessing his devotees, his other hand bearing a Gadda and his last hand facing down with mudra. The idol is placed on a lotus platform and beautifully depicted and can be placed in your house, office or car. The enormous head of the Lord signifies wisdom and knowledge, his big ear depicts that he can hear every worship and prayer of his devotee. His small eyes symbolize concentration and his small mouth depicts talk less. His big pot belly represents that one should digest every good or evil that comes your way. Bring this lord home to shower good luck, prosperity, success, love, peace and harmony in your house or office.
