Product Description

Shri Krishna the lover boy of Gokul dham who had captivated the hearts of the beautiful milk maidens by his charming appearance, exploding innocence, playful tricks and scintillating tunes from his flute. He was even considered as the moon of Vrindavan. In this scroll the centre image is carved in an excellent manner reminding us of the mesmerizing scenes of gokuldam the Rasaleela of the mischievous lord. In rest few images the heroic acts of Krishna are presented. During his life as Krishna he had defeated several demons with all his wit the poisonous serpent Kalia, the stroke demon Bakasura, the witch putana and many more. In rest of the images the ten incarnations of lord Vishnu is inscribed. So bring this scroll home to enhance the beauty of your house as well as increase the spiritual level of your surroundings.
