

Coulorful unique Krishna story palm leaf scroll 30x18 inch

Read More

SKU: 00361

Price: ₹50,400.00 inc. GST

Stock: onbackorder

Categories: Palm Leaf Scroll Paintings, Wall Decor

Product Description

This colorful scroll depicting the phases of lord Krishna's life is an exquisite piece of artwork presented by the artisans of the Odisha. Lord Krishna also referred as the makkhan chor or the natkhat nand lal is the eighth incarnation of lord Vishnu who took form in the dwapara yuga to establish love and oneness and eradicate the evil from earth. Lord Krishna's Rasaleela is famous all over the world and the mythology; he used to capture the hearts of beautiful mil maidens of the gokuldham with his melodious tunes he played from with his flute. His playful and notorious acts never failed to impress the people of Vrindavan. His favorite among the maidens was radha rani who was blindly in love with the lord and when they performed it seemed like two bodies and one soul. This unique scroll depicting the beautiful scenes of Vrindavan and Mathura in a very scenic and colourful manner will not just beautify the walls of your house or office but will also add another level of life to your surrounding. So grab this for you or your loved ones before it is too late.

---