Product Description

Lord Ganesha is the “Ganadhipati”, leader of the ganas and “Vinayaka”, the knowledgeable. Lord Ganesha is the son of Lord Shiva, the destroyer of universe and the Adi-Shakti, goddess Parvati. The elephant headed deity is presented here in his Chaturbhuja form with four arms, two of which bears a mace, a noose, in other hand he bears reward for a righteous life, a sweet bowl and his last hand raised in grace to bless his devotees. He has his mount near his feet, the mouse which is symbolical representation of ego, so lord Ganesha is the one who have conquered ego. He has a snake tied around his pot belly which means the cosmic energy he have. He is the embodiment of knowledge, truth, courteousness and righteousness. So bring this statue home to be bestowed with success, boon and prosperity.
