Product Description

The musical instrument in hand of Lord Ganesha is known as harmonium, is a widely used musical instrument throughout the world. Developed in France in 1960s and used in western culture and accepted widely as a staple instrument throughout India. The harmonium reflects that Lord Ganesha is not the just God of Indians he in the true sense is the Ganna-dhi-pati, the Lord of the Ganas or people irrespective of their caste, creed, religion and colour. This elephant-headed deity is considered to be the lord of good fortune who provides prosperity and success. He is the Lord of beginning and remover of all ordeals or obstacles. The elephant head of the Lord is the symbol of unmatched wisdom and gaining knowledge through reflection and listening. His trunk depicts high efficiency and adaptability. Bring this charm of happiness and peaceful home for the peaceful environment, decorate it in your office for prosperity and good luck or gift them to your loved ones, whom you care about to give them blessings of the Vighnesha.
